

OBITUARY.

Sarah Alice Cochran died at her home in Fallsburg, Ky., Aug. 2, 1910, age thirty-one years and nine months. Her funeral was preached by Rev. H. B. Hallett to a large audience after which the body was laid to rest in the family grave yard overlooking the town. Alice was a girl that everybody loved. To know her was to love her. She was afflicted with a complicated condition of diseases for eight months yet she bore it all with Christian patience, willing to submit all things to the will and wisdom of God, who is too wise to err. Her loved ones did everything that lay in their power to do for her, but nothing could do for her. Her friends and neighbors administered unto her every possible comfort, but their arms were too short to stay the hand of death and when she saw she could no longer fight the death enemy, she called her father and mother, brothers and sister to her bedside and bade them not sorrow after her, but that she was going to some happy home where she would be reunited with her friends and neighbors. She said she was going to some happy home where she would be reunited with her friends and neighbors. She said she was going to some happy home where she would be reunited with her friends and neighbors. EDWARD BERRY.

On Friday, August 12, death visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Berry and took from them their darling babe, Edward, aged ten months. Just a few short days ago their home as radiant with love and sunshine. For what home is not happy where there are sweet-faced little infants to brighten and gladden them? But such joys do not last forever, and Edward's sweet little soul has wafted home where he'll never know pain or sickness again. Sometimes we are inclined to think such afflictions are hard to bear, but be patient, dear parents, if you will only live right you shall see him again where parting will never come. And Oh, the joy of such a reunion; to know we will never know another pain or sorrow. But it more for your darling, but strive to do God's will and meet him. A Friend.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. C. T. Miller, wife of Charles T. Miller, a merchant and postmaster, of Vossie, departed this life July 5th, 1910, aged 43 years and one month. She was born and raised in Ohio and married Charles Miller when quite young. To this union was born five children all living. Mrs. Miller joined the church and was converted when but a child, and lived a devoted Christian life. Mrs. Miller performed well her tasks in this life. She was gentle, kind and good, loved and respected by her many friends and neighbors. Mrs. Miller is not dead but sleeping. The spring showers melt on Mother Earth, but rise again in fruits and leaves and flowers. And every death is nothing but a birth. God bless Little Charlie and the motherless children. A H.

CLAYES.

On last Friday, Mr. Borders' house was burned. The family saved a few articles, the rest being consumed in the flames. The house also contained all of four boxes household goods, which were all burned up. The fire started in the roof which was boarded and was under such headway before it was discovered that it could not be stopped. Mr. Borders was near at work and his wife at home but the women and children. Charles Preston was elected trustee in the church chapel district. The last creek district failed to elect a trustee. Mrs. Lura George is not expected to live long. She has consumption. On Sunday 12 just the time of Mrs. Catherine Murray was destroyed by fire. She was making and preparing dinner when she discovered that the house was on fire. She was a widow and was alone and before assistance could reach her the house was burned to the ground. UNDERWOOD
Standard Typewriter

ARE INVARIABLY POINTS IN WHICH THE UNDERWOOD IS THE RECOGNIZED SUPERIOR.

It originated Visible Writing - it first introduced Built-in Tabulators and Modern Bookkeeping Appliances. In all of these important improvements, other standard makes have gradually fallen into line. The business public, however, prefers the machine that has led the way, because it stands to reason that it is always far ahead of the "trailers." Let us show you the points of difference between the UNDERWOOD and its imitators and you will understand why it is
